Speaker:

Kelly Raudenbush, MA is the Executive Director of The Sparrow Fund, a nonprofit that cares for foster and adopted children and their grownups by empowering relationships within and between families. Through her full-time ministry and her personal ministry as a wife and mother, she longs to see lives transformed through healing relationships. Kelly will be encouraging each of us to seek Jesus with great expectation this Christmas season.

Menu:

Assortment of quiches, seasoned potatoes, sausage links, French toast bake, fruit, yogurt, and pastries - coffee, tea, and other beverages included. Gluten free options available.

All women high school age & above are welcome.

Scholarships to cover ticket price are available upon request.
