The Parables of Jesus: Timeless Truths for Everyday Life Led by Natalie Hallman

Women

7-week Class | @ Church | Starts Oct 4 | 6:00pm-7:45pm

The parables of Jesus are more than simple stories. They reveal profound truths about God's kingdom, His heart and His purpose for our lives. Though shared centuries ago, they continue to speak into the everyday experiences of women today by offering wisdom, hope, and encouragement.

Whether you're new to Bible study or have been studying God's Word for years, you'll be challenged, refreshed and strengthened as we learn from Jesus, the greatest Teacher of all.

Intentional Christian Grandparenting Led by Ron & Barb Christman

6-week Class | @ Church | Starts Oct 11 | 6:00pm-7:30pm

Grandparenting Matters is a six-session group study designed to equip Christian grandparents to intentionally pass a legacy of faith to their grandchildren. We will view videos and discuss the following areas: the influence of a grandparent, the Bible's message to grandparents, reaching the heart of a grandchild, overcoming the barriers of distance, 8 best practices of Christian grandparents, and becoming an intentional Christian grandparent.

TUESDAYS

Psalms Led by Pastor Dave Shalaway

7-week Class (Does not meet 3rd Tuesday) | @ Church | Starts Sept 22 | 6:00pm-7:30pm

A seven week study in Psalms focusing on the Psalms our faithful Tuesday group members have chosen. Join the class and send me your picks as well!

Men's Bible Study Led by Scott Natter

Men

7-week Class | @ Church | Starts Oct 6 | 6:30-8:30pm

Utilizing the study principles in our Romans Scripture Journal and five weekly questions curated from the Romans sermon series text, we will dig into this masterful letter from Paul the Apostle.

Romans is chock full of the essential beliefs of the Christian faith, along with what we will look like when we faithfully apply them to our lives.

The Parables of Jesus: Timeless Truths for Everyday Life Led by Natalie Hallman
